

Blackheath Park, Kent

May 21, 1866

Dear Sir

Although very much occupied I have, with difficulty, found time to read the pamphlet which I am indebted to you for sending me. It has not, however, persuaded me to agree with you; but I cannot possibly undertake to discuss so intricate a subject with you in a letter.

I do not know to what article on Money your letter refers as I have never published any article with that title.

J.S. Mill

John Stuart Mill*

G. Harvey Esq.
