Nihon University College of Law Library's
Saint-Simon Collection
Manuscripts of Saint-Simon

Nihon University College of Law Library (NUCLL) houses the Saint-Simon Collection including 465 items and a bibliography. Claude Henri de Saint-Simon is a very famous social thinker of 18th to 19th century. NUCLL has purchased the collection from Merrion Book Co. Wickmere House, Wickmere, Norfolk NR 11 7JE, England through Kinokuniya Company Ltd (Japanese book store).

The collection is separated into four parts. The first is the works of Saint-Simon and the works about Saint-Simon, the Saint-Simonians and Saint-Simonism (N. 1 to N. 344). The second is the manuscripts by and about Saint-Simon, the Saint-Simonians and Saint-Simonism (N. 345 to N. 426). The third is the lithographs of the Saint-Simonians (N. 427 to N. 440). The last is the supplements (N. 441 to N. 465 and a bibliography). Among the manuscripts, three items are already published on the NUCLL web.

N. 362 : <http://www.law.nihon-u.ac.jp/library/collectionpack/saint-simon/01.html>

The following bibliographies N. 345 to N. 364 are manuscripts by Saint-Simon (his own handwriting and probably his secretary's handwriting?). NUCLL now is preparing the total and complete Saint-Simon Collection Catalog.
